

MUSIC NEWSLETTER Week beginning May 11th 2020

Hello!

Hope you are all keeping safe and well this week and ready for some more music making activities

I hope you enjoyed singing “As I Kneel Before You” and “We'll Meet Again”.

YOUNG VOICES

I hope lots of you are enjoying the YV sessions. How many of you were “In the Band” last week?

I am challenging you this week to sign up for the “Power in Me” challenge so that on 2nd June St Monica's will have a big choir taking part. You can get all the information here. <https://www.youngvoices.co.uk/powerinme>

DRAMA AND MUSIC

This week I've been looking at some great free resources from the School Musicals Company.

There are lots of free downloads with scripts for 2 people to read/learn and a song.

There are also some monologues. These are all original Musicals, including Paws and Claws - based on Romeo and Juliet, Pantastic, Kitty Whittington, Who's My mummy, so much choice and could be fun to do some drama and music as a family.

BBC 10 PIECES

As always, great listening activities - this week is Elgar Enigma Variations, and a drawing activity to make something to send to a loved one.

OUT OF THE ARK

As always there are great songs to sing - my favourite for week 7 is “J-O-Y-F-U-L”.

I like the way there are different themes and you can access all the songs from previous weeks. I challenge you to do at least one song every day.

I really miss all your singing and playing, do send me pictures/videos of your music on class Dojo.

Love, Ms Phillips
