Dear Parents

Assemblies – On Monday I spoke to all the children about the Gospel reading from the previous week. Jesus gave his disciples one last commandment, “I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.” We then looked at a letter from St Paul who explained what love is and also what it is not! Let’s all remember, love is patient and kind. On Wednesday I reminded the Junior children how to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion in preparation for Mass on Thursday. We also read the Gospel from Sunday’s Mass where Jesus reassured his friends not to be troubled or afraid; the power of the Holy Spirit would be coming to support them.

Feast of the Ascension – On Thursday we celebrated the Feast of the Ascension with Mass in school. Thank you to Fr Stewart who came in for this. It was lovely that those children in Year 3 who had made their First Holy Communion, could receive Communion for the first time in school!

Queen’s Jubilee party! – Today was a memorable day for the children and staff. The sun shone and the children wore an array of red, white and blue! They enjoyed crown making, flag making, singing, dancing and a picnic. Each child has received a special book mark to commemorate the Queen’s Jubilee. This has been paid for using a donation from a parent.

Last One Standing – Message from Tom Conlon: It’s been a title race of the highest quality. Week after week, two teams went head-to-head in an enthralling battle, leading to a tension-filled final day decider. City v Liverpool? Not a patch on Duffy v Jacovou. And after 12 weeks, the winner of Last One Standing 2022 is Xander Jacovou. A fantastic achievement Xander and congratulations to you! 🏆🏆🏆
The Friends will be in touch about the well-deserved prize.
Commiserations to Mrs Duffy who pushed Xander right to the finish line. Both contestants took their excellent form into penalties, and it took until the 6th round until the two were separated.

I would like to thank our parent, Tom Conlon for his time and efforts that he put into such a well organised competition. His weekly reports are worthy of any sports magazine! This raised over £1000 for the school. Thanks also to Red Loft for sponsoring this event.
