

Internet safety information for parents - Tik Tok

Lots of children are using Tik Tok to watch videos as well as uploading their own content. The required age is actually 13 and so no primary children should be using it – however, we know this is not the reality. Please check these links to help support your child to be safe online.

<https://parentzone.org.uk/article/tiktok>

<https://www.nspcc.org.uk/keeping-children-safe/online-safety/online-safety-blog/child-safe-settings-tiktok/>

<https://www.internetmatters.org/hub/esafety-news/tik-tok-app-safety-what-parents-need-to-know/>

<https://www.gohenry.com/uk/blog/online-safety/parents-guide-to-tiktok-everything-you-need-to-know>